

Warm-Up: What Are We Talking About? 🙄

Read the sentences:

1) The girl found the bag.

2) Max found the bag.

3) He found it.

CHANGED

STAYED
THE SAME

Question: What changed?
What stayed the same?

Step 1: Nouns – Naming Words

A noun is a naming word. Nouns name:

PEOPLE

PEOPLE

Specific names for individuals
(e.g., girl, Max, doctor)

PLACES

PLACES

Locations and destinations
(e.g., city, school, park)

THINGS

THINGS

Objects, animals, and substances
(e.g., bag, dog, water)

IDEAS

IDEAS

Concepts and abstract thoughts
(e.g., happiness, freedom, love)

Spot the Nouns

1)

The dog chased the ball.

2)

My sister loves music.

3)

Happiness matters.

Step 2: Proper Nouns – Specific Names

- Some nouns are special.
- They name specific people or places.
- These are called PROPER NOUNS.
- They always use capital letters.

SPECIFIC & CAPITALIZED

a city

a person

Sydney★

Max★

Common → Proper

dog → Max★

Sunshine
Primary

city

→ Sydney★

teacher

→ Miss Patel★

Why Capital Letters Matter

Capital letters show importance and specificity. 🧠

Compare:

a city

Sydney★

Step 3: Pronouns – Replacing Nouns 🧠

Using the same noun again and again sounds repetitive.

Pronouns replace nouns to make sentences smoother.

The dog ate [★]its food in [★]its bowl.

Pronouns in Action

Repetitive:

The girl found
the bag.

The girl picked up the bag.

Better:

The girl found
the bag.

She picked it up.

Common Pronouns

I, you, he, she, it

we, they

Find What It Replaces

Tom was late because he missed the bus.

Question:
What does 'he' replace?

 Tom was late because he missed the bus.

Step 4: Possessive Pronouns – Showing Belonging

Some pronouns do more than replace nouns.

They also show who something belongs to.

Possessive Pronouns List

my, your, his, her

its, our, their

Possessive Pronouns in Context

This is my book.

belongs to

The dog wagged its tail.

belongs to

She forgot her bag.

belongs to

They packed their lunch.

belongs to

Guided Practice

1) This is bag.
(my / I)

2) The cat cleaned
paws. (its / it)

3) He lost hat.
(his / he)

4) We finished work.
(our / we)

Bridge Question 🤔

These words
show belonging:

my, his, her,
its, their

,

Why don't these words need apostrophes?

(We'll connect this back to apostrophes next.)

Big Picture Takeaway ★

Nouns name things

Proper nouns name specific things

Pronouns replace nouns

Possessive pronouns show belonging

You Did It 🙌

You followed how ideas move from names → replacements → ownership.

